We Endeavor . . .

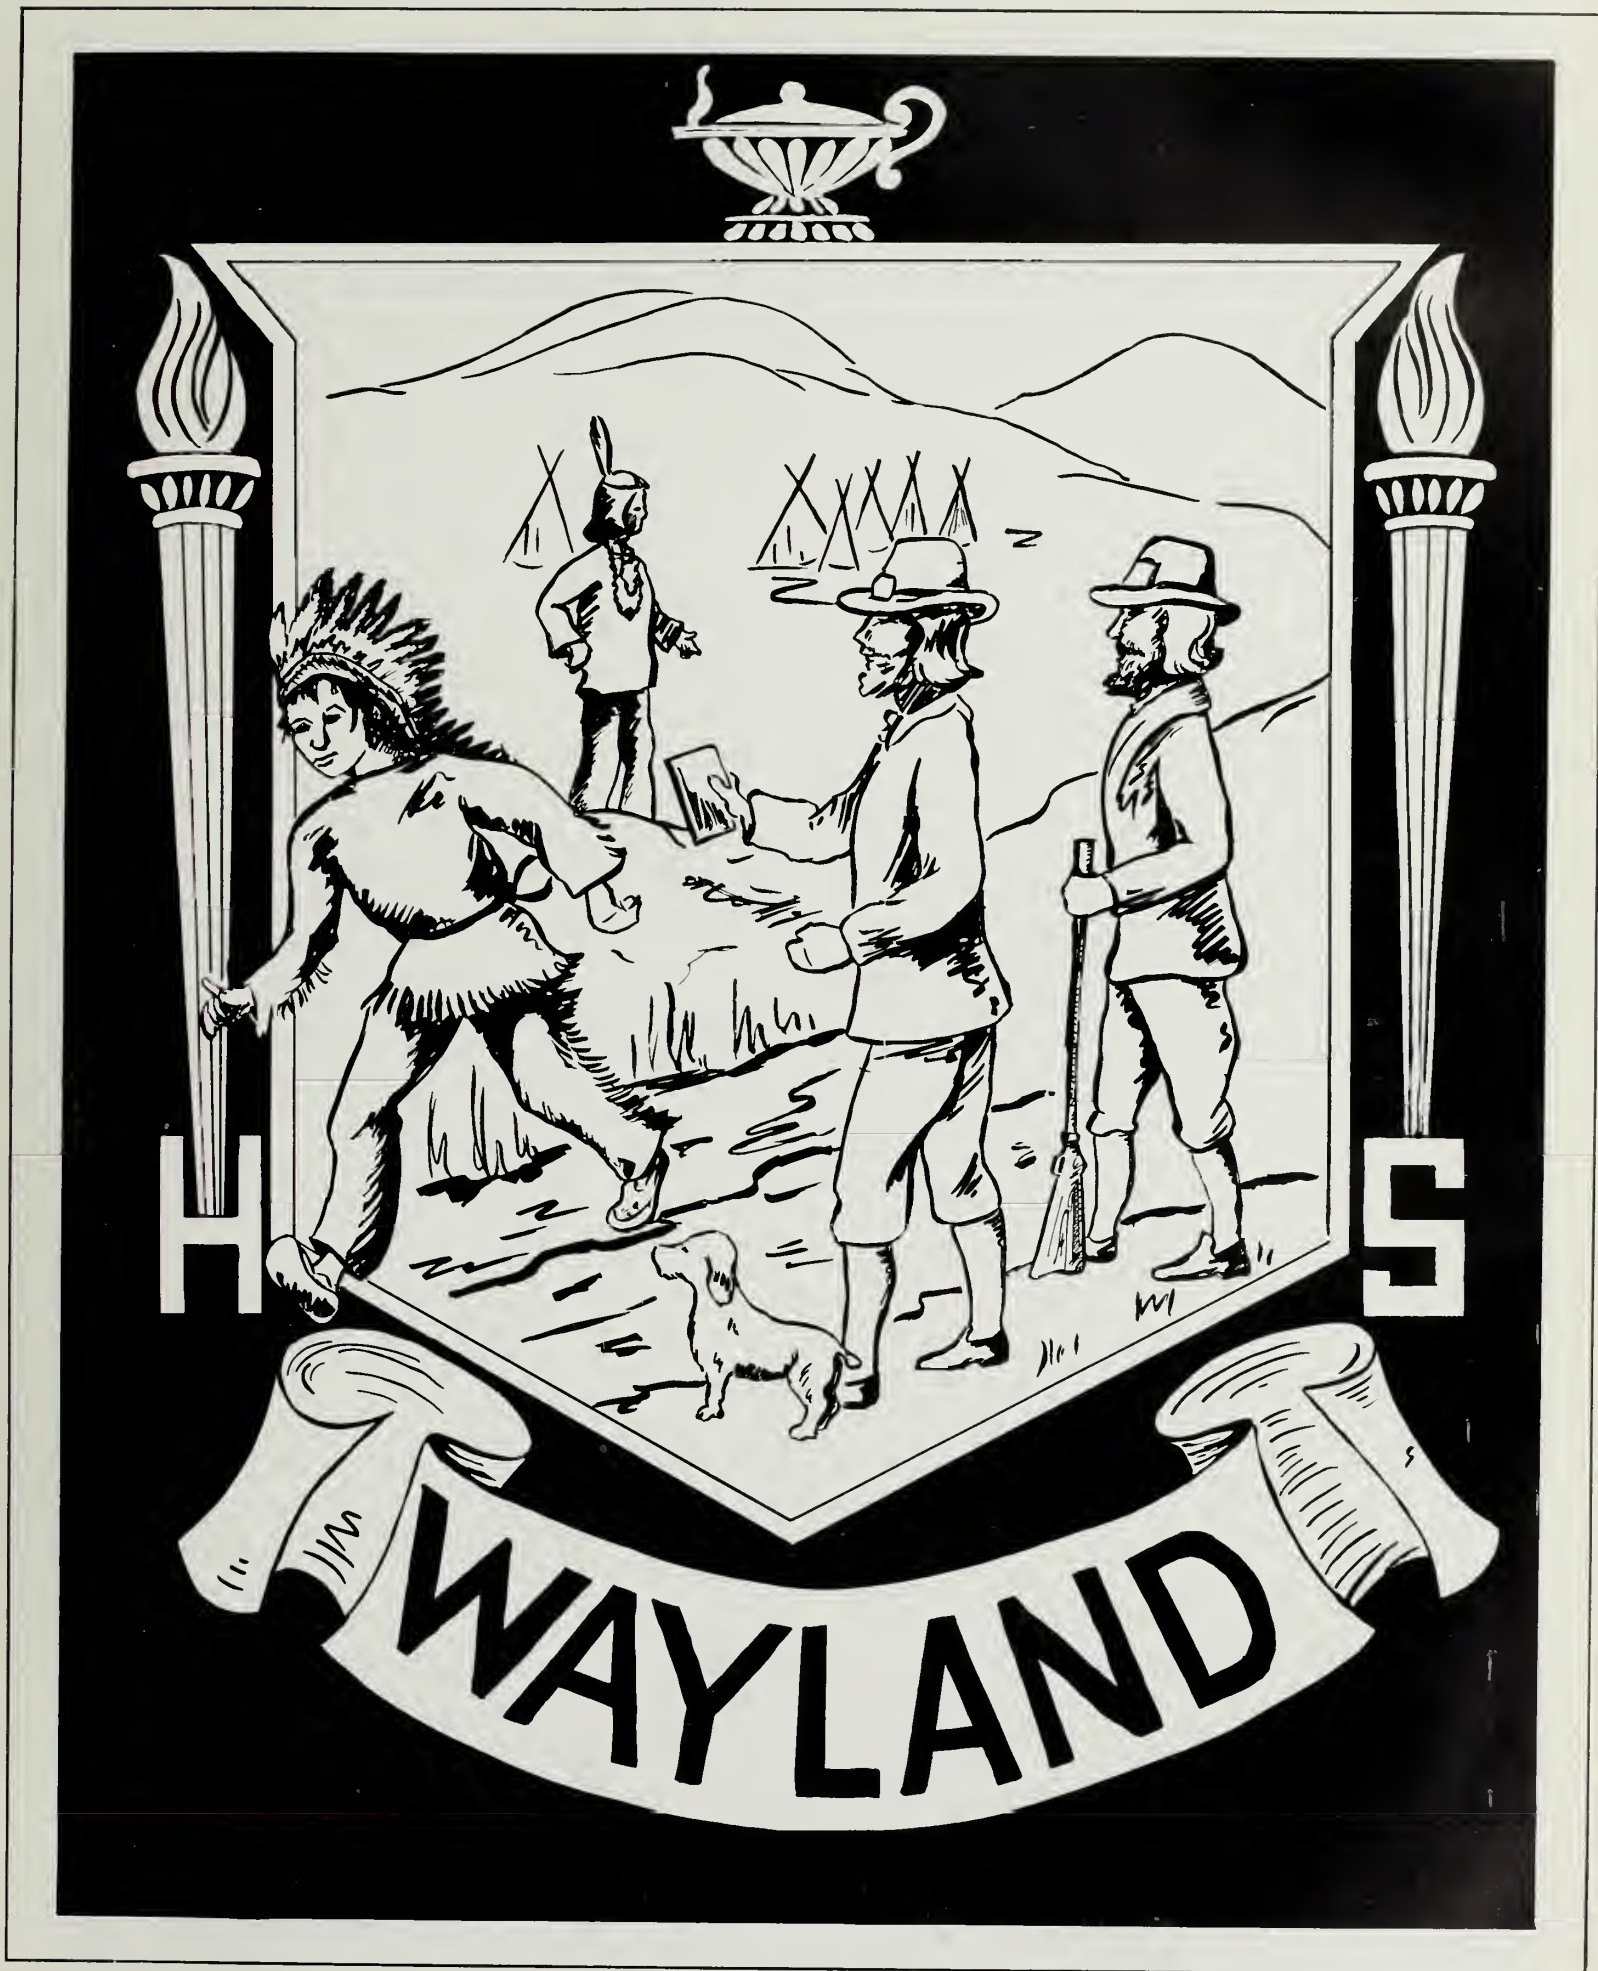

The town of Wayland which was incorporated in 1835, adopted as its seal (pictured right) an illustration of the beginning of friendship between the "intruders" and the native Indians, through education.

As far back as two-hundred years before the town's official incorporation, a call arose for the formation of a school to serve what is now Wayland. This was the start of a long chain of gradual improvement of education in Wayland's history. The Class of 1961, presents Chief Wayuate (WAYland—cochitUATE) to show this quest for knowledge, for he represents the Indians and their omnipresence.

Chief Wayuate was there in 1664, at the establishment of the District Dame School. He was there in 1799, when five red brick school houses were built; and in 1854, when the first high school classes were held in the Odd Fellows Building. He was there in 1879, at the establishment of Wayland's Center School. Chief Wayuate was still there in 1927, when the Cochituate Elementary School was erected; in 1934, at the construction of a new high school building and in 1948 when the high school building was expanded.

Each time new curriculum or facilities were presented to the students, Chief Wayuate and what he represented were there.

January 8, 1961, the spirit of Wayuate prevailed as the new Wayland High School was dedicated. Now Chief Wayuate steps out of the town seal in order to present to you the new high school, dedicated to the betterment of education.

We Dedicate . . .

Wayland High School
Wayland, Massachusetts
June, 1961

To a Dedicated Man,

We, as Seniors have looked into our past and found you, a man who has contributed greatly to the spirit of our class.

As our Junior Advisor, you gave freely of your time and effort. Whether it was a problem of U.S. History or of fund-raising, you were always there with the answer. Thanks to your personal interest and diligence, our Junior Prom was a success.

We wish to show our appreciation by dedicating this the 1961 Reflector to you. This is our way of saying "Thank you," Mr. Scotland.

Sincerely,
The Class of 1961

It's been my belief . . .

I know the answer, Mrs. Champagne.

Sure I'll be at the dance!

Administration

Wayland, Massachusetts, lies sixteen miles west of Boston and now harbors roughly 10,000 people. Many Wayland residents work in the town's shops and service industries or still commute to Boston. But, an increasing number are professional people — scientists, college teachers, engineers, and management men.

The new residents have in the past decade forced a change in Wayland's educational outlook. School, college, and graduate school have enabled the new residents to rise to their present positions of prestige and affluence. They want their own children to receive equal or superior benefits from schooling. This background in the home is reflected in the estimation that eighty-five per cent of the students in the existing Wayland High School are qualified for college—or at least are aimed along the college-bound route.

The Administration of the school is in the hands of a Principal, Vice Principal, four coordinators and the Guidance Personnel. The school is administered by a team effort as are the academic areas.

Housed within the Administration building are the Student Commons and kitchen, Guidance Offices and reference room, Health Suite, Faculty Lounge, and the Administrative Offices.

They Lead Us . . .

Chairman

To the Class of "61":

In the past four years the Class of "61" has played an important part in the progress of Wayland High School. During that period you have moved forward through a continuing improvement in the school program which promises an unlimited potential.

We are proud of our first class to graduate from the new school and it is our sincere wish that your preparation has been sufficient, that your memories will be pleasant and that, whatever may be your goal, your future will be fruitful.

They Advise . . .

William M. Griffin
Principal

Our Country looks to you, its youth, for leadership to guide it through the unknown and uncertain future. May the experiences which you have acquired at Wayland High School serve you well to fulfill this momentous responsibility.

To the Class of 1961:

Many of the accomplishments that now depict the role of Wayland High School among secondary schools are directly attributable to examples of leadership on your part. Somehow, I have felt that you have wanted a better place to learn and have been willing to pioneer in that respect. I hope that through this cooperative effort, we have removed some major obstacles to an effective school day and that you have benefited therefrom.

As you continue your education either at college or on the job, try to avail yourselves of any possible time with great teachers. Use the resources around you. Apply the tools of research as problems arise. Recognize that new learnings are forthcoming. Maintain a body that is fit. Seek to understand yourself and the ultimate aims of life. Congratulations and Best Wishes to each of you.

Seniors

The next phase of the students' schedule includes two meetings in a medium group class. There are approximately thirty pupils in the medium class.

The buildings are architecturally designed so that a reference room is centrally located in each center. The reference centers are staffed with Sub-Librarians who work in conjunction with the head Librarian.

In the Business-Social Studies Center (pictured left) are taught World Civilization, Problems of Democracy, U.S. History, Bookkeeping, Stenography, Office Practice, and Typing & Office Machines.

Seniors

David N. Abt

34 Old Connecticut Path
Wayland

Dave appears to be reserved and shy but we all know otherwise. In fact, he is present at every party and really seems to enjoy the night life. In addition, Dave is one of the best dressed boys in our class. With this combination, it's no wonder that his popularity among his fellow students is so high. A pipe, large and brown, could easily be Dave's symbol, for he is seldom seen without it, except in school.

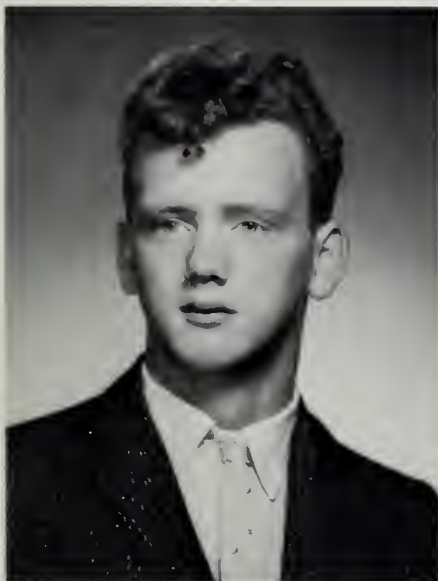

Nancy Todd Adams

51 High Rock Road
Wayland

An all American girl—that's our Nance. She is cute, conscientious, and capable. Joining our class in her Junior year, she brought with her an air of gaiety and fun. A worker on the Senior concession tent, a whiz at selling fruit cakes and fifty star flags, Nance is a loyal class supporter. Her future? Well, she's undecided as to what she'll be, but she is planning on Junior College and then—who knows?

Chatterbox 3; College Club 3; Prom Committee 3; Field Hockey Team 4; Chorus 4.

Leon H. Allen

25 Winter Street
Cochituate

Leon is a fun finder from way back. His merry ways and ability to incite good times for all, have won him many friends. When Leon's not having a ball with the gang or driving his hot rod, you can usually find him having a serious talk with a good friend. That's what we like best about Leon—he can fool around and crack jokes, but he knows when to settle down and be serious.

Prom Committee 3.

Phyllis Ruth Ames

134 West Plain Street
Cochituate

Cheerful, petite, Phyl is always smiling. Active in her M.Y.F., she has a pleasing personality, combining fun and seriousness. Phyl has been a member of the Library Service Club and is always willing to type for the Chatterbox or Reflector. Her future plans are to become a commercial secretary and work in an office.

Chatterbox 3; Library Service Club 4; Prom Committer 3; Reflector Staff 4.

Eric C. Anderson

216 Concord Road
Wayland

Eric's future? He says it's unlimited: rock-etary research, planetary funsketching or United Nations duty. Who Knows! With this broad-minded outlook on life, Eric is sure to succeed. He came to Wayland in his Sophomore year from Cambridge. A quiet class member, Eric's interests are working and "having fun with the gang." His hobbies are stamp collecting, wood working, and occasionally repairing broken mechanical items. We wish Eric luck in his unlimited future.

F. George Andosca, Jr.

17 Winthrop Road
Wayland

George, tall and dark, likes school, but also likes other things, such as GIRLS! Outside of classes, his main interest is working on cars and collecting hot-rod magazines. If there is anything wrong with a car, George can fix it. After graduation, he plans to attend East Coast Aero Tech and study to be an airline mechanic and pilot. After he is settled in his job and financially suited, George hopes to have time to do some sports car roving.

David K. Bitzer

Castle Gate South
Cochituate

Good-looking Dave always has a friendly smile for everyone. A loyal golfer, Dave has been a member of our golf team since his Sophomore year. Dave's ambition is to be successful in whatever he decides to do. We think that it is more than likely that this ambition will be fulfilled. When he's not building models, having a lively game with the boys or driving towards Connecticut, you can be sure Dave's devouring pie. What kind? Anything from cherry to pizza!

William Lewis Avard

11 White Road
Wayland

"Witty is as witty does" and our Bill certainly is witty. His swift thinking and rapid retorts have brightened many a class. We often have our seniors' pet peeves, but in this case it's the other way around. Bill is Mrs. Rooney's pet peeve! This tall senior has not yet decided on his future career, but we think that he'll probably be another Bob Hope. Whatever his plans may be, we wish him all the luck in the world.

Roberta Jean Boesenberg

Memorial Square
Cochituate

Accepted at Mount Auburn Hospital in December, Roberta will be training to become a radiology technician. Perhaps she will be practicing in Florida, while Wayland High School is deluged by snow. We sit home, freezing to death, while Roberta enjoys a swim in the Atlantic. But we love her anyway!

Lynn Marie Bishop

51 School Street
Wayland

A vivacious red head, Linda came to Wayland four years ago from Chicago, Illinois. Her recreational activities are many and varied. At the head of the list, one might find dancing and bowling. Her more serious side shows Linda as an avid reader and active member in church activities. Upon graduating from Wayland High School, she hopes to hold an office job and then she has plans for marriage.

Henry Elroy Bowker

377a Commonwealth Road
Cochituate

If you see a small, yellow Lloyd of London, English car, you can bet on it's being Roy. His car is his pride and joy. We can't blame him, though, it's really something terrific. Roy is a quiet member of our class, but he isn't afraid to voice his opinion on anything and is always ready for a good argument. When not in school or riding around in his car, Roy can be found working at Chin's Village. His future plans are undecided, but we know he will be successful.

Thomas W. Bowles, Jr.

9 French Avenue
Cochituate

Tom, a quick witted blond, is what some may term as a devil. He is a fun-loving person who has a streak of seriousness buried so deep that it is very rarely evident. One always sees Tom in his car, "the whale," on the way to parties on Friday and Saturday night, behind the counter at the Pharmacy, or in English teasing Mr. Burns. Next year he hopes to go to college and take up civil engineering.

Fire Squad 3; Prom Committee 3.

James Leonard Bradford

49 Highrock Road
Wayland

Jim is one of the few well rounded members of our class. His academic record is high, as is shown by his position of President of the N.H.S. and his reciprocity of the Harvard Book Award. His interest in sports is proven by his position on the basketball team. This senior's future includes an education at Wheaton College and seminary training for the ministry or Christian Youth work.

Roy A. Bradley

2 Plain Rd.
Wayland

One of our most promising athletic classmates throughout our high school career has been Roy, who is adept at all sports to which he puts his hand. Besides his in-school sports activities, he is an avid skater, and may be seen on winter afternoons gliding over The Mill Pond. Roy has, in the past four years, been busy in many class affairs; and after graduating from business school, he will undoubtedly be a leader in the world of commerce.

Baseball 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Ring Committee 3; Student Council 1.

Herbert Brannen

323 Old Connecticut Path
Cochituate

Being interested in school affairs, Herb participates in many activities and services in school. His good behavior and interest in schoolwork set a good example for underclassmen. His main interest in school lies in biology, which he understands very well. Out of school he enjoys swimming, and for a summer job he works at the town beach teaching swimming, or as a life guard. After graduation Herb intends to enter college where he will major in biology. Eventually he hopes to make biology his profession.

Bi-Phi-Chem Club 1; College Club 2, 3, 4; Football 4; French Club 4; Reflector Staff 4.

Clayton Douglas Brown, Jr.

27 Sunset Road
Cochituate

Clayton can usually be found working at the Villa, but—if you're in Westboro and you happen to see a red and white stock car numbered 48 "whiz by," you can bet it's Clayton. You see, this likeable senior has an interest in racing and owns his own stock car. Clayton has no definite plans for the future; he may enter the service or take a trip to Florida.

Pollyanne Carter

3 Water Row
Wayland

Pollyanne has a serious nature, speckled with laughter. She has an enthusiastic spirit, and is always eager and willing to help a friend. At the University of Massachusetts, she hopes to major in Sociology, in preparation for work with mentally ill children. Marriage and a family are included in her not-too-distant plans.

Beverly Ann Bullock

21 Riverview Avenue
Wayland

Bev is one of Wayland High's friendliest students. Besides being a lot of fun, she is trustworthy, loyal and thoughtful. She never forgets a birthday, but instead remembers it with a cake. If Bev can't be found at the basketball or football games cheering for the team, you can be sure that she is eating a meatball sandwich. This attractive, fun-filled teenager can often be seen with her head under the hood of a 1948 black Chevy trying to make it run.

College Club 2; Girls Chorus 1, 2; Guidance Service 3, 4; Prom Committee 3; Reflector Staff 4; Traffic Squad 1, 2.

William Henry Clarke

13 Happy Hollow Road
Wayland

Quick-witted Bill always has an answer for everything. Perhaps it comes from his announcing our home football games so well. Bill, with blonde hair and blue eyes, is always smiling, usually at a pretty girl. In his Sophomore and Junior years Bill served the class first as treasurer, and then as a member of the Student Council. He plans to go to a liberal arts college, majoring in either business or education. Good luck, Bill!

Robert Terry Burkinshaw

30 Bayfield Road
Cochituate

Tall, dark, good-looking Terry, though quiet, can always be counted on to offer a lending hand in our school activities. Terry enjoys ice skating, basketball, fixing cars, and staying out late at night. His favorite dish is filet. He works at the Kiddie Ranch at Shopper's World. After high school Terry hopes to enter college and become a conservation officer. In a few years from now, we might find Terry helping to control forest fires with the aid of Smokey the Bear.

David Chester Cleveland

7 Sedgemeadow Road
Wayland

Dave is a tall, quiet and intelligent boy. This expert rifleman is always seen with a pleasant smile and friendly "Hi" to all. After attending college, he desires to enter the field of engineering. Besides his many school activities Dave takes an active interest in his CYO. He has all the qualifications of being successful in whatever achievement and ambition assures us that Dave will never fail.

Arnold Howes Christle

118 Glezen Lane
Wayland

In the summer time, which seems to be Arnold's favorite season of the year, one may find him near the water skiing or boating, on land teeing off on the golf course, or under a tree reading Plato. During the winter Arnold spends most of his time at the local hockey spot or at someone's house enjoying a good party, perhaps in Newton. He plans to further his education in Junior College and transfer to a Senior College where he will probably major in architecture.

Basketball 2; Projector's Club 1.

Martha Mary Collins

123 Glezen Lane
Wayland

Martha, a tall attractive brunette, is active in school functions. She is enthusiastic about sports, especially basketball and field hockey, and is always seen at the games rooting for the team. She is active outside of school, too, for she is treasurer of her C.Y.O., and loves bowling. She is going to practice her teaching techniques by being a counsellor this summer before she goes on to college in September.

Romaine Columbe

391 Old Connecticut Path
Cochituate

Brunette and bubbling, Romaine is known as one of the hardest workers in the class of 1961. Whether it's a class project or an extra-curricular organization, you can count on her being there ready to pitch in and help. Romaine enjoys bowling, singing, and plain "just having fun." To be a secretary is Romaine's goal and she hopes to attain it by first attending a business school.

Charles William Cook, III

25 Castle Gate Road
Cochituate

Charley is one of the most likeable boys in our class. In his Sophomore year he was president of the class and has been active in many other school activities. Charley's keen wit and sense of humor have made him an outstanding member of our class. Ambitious Charley wants to travel and see the world on his own, go to an engineering college, enter the U. S. Air Force for his term of duty, and finally settle down.

Valerie Joy Costa

29 School Street
Wayland

Valerie joined our class in our Junior year from neighboring Framingham. Since coming to Wayland, Val has become a well-liked member of our class. Val is fun-filled and always ready for a dare. In her spare time she enjoys reading, music and eating (especially good pizza). For the future? Well, she hopes to be a concert pianist after attending college, majoring in music.

Art Service Club 4; College Club 3; French Club 4; Guidance Messenger 3; Prom Committee 3; Senior Play 4.

Margaret Ann Dobbie

59 Sedgemeadow Road
Wayland

Blue-eyed, blonde haired, Peggy joined us this year from Weston, and has added immeasurable fun to our class, and pep to our uousfield hockey and basketball teams. A conscientious student, Peggy enjoys reading and creative writing, as well as participating in and watching sports. Next year she plans to attend college and major in Education. She then hopes to become an English teacher.

Nancy Blair Damon

23 Dean Road
Cochituate

If you hear someone call your name and a laughing "hi" you can bet it's Nance. Petite and attractive, Nance is popular, full of pep, and constantly talking. She likes horseback riding and dancing. Her pep is evident by the fact that she was elected cheerleader for three years and has been on the field hockey and softball teams. Nance plans to attend college, but is undecided in her career.

George R. Dreher

27 White Road
Wayland

George transferred to Wayland at the beginning of our Junior year. Since then, he has become one of the most popular boys in our class. His skill on the football field is known to all who watch him play. As he is a good student, George plans to go to college next year, but is undecided as to what his major field will be. His interests are many and varied. At the top of the list, we would find sports, and of course, girls!

Geoffrey W. Davis

32 Pequot Road
Wayland

Geoffery is tall, dark, and secretive. He enjoys the art of flying airplanes and the art of photography. He has his own license in flying and his own camera for photography. He intends to go to a four year college, join the Air Force for seven years and continue on to a graduate school for four years. He would like to become a clinical psychologist and part time flight instructor. For that reason we may see him flying to his classes at the University of Mass.

Patricia E. Dyer

387 East Commonwealth Road

Pat, with her inexhaustable fund of jokes, is as light in spirit as she is active in many fields. Pat's antics as Chief Wayuate will long be remembered by Wayland High School as the final boost our guys needed to "eat those Weston Wildcats." Pat's future is tangled between the desire to be an airline hostess or a secretary.

John E. Dyne

175 Cochituate Road
Wayland

Although we have only known John since our Junior year, he has, in his quiet way, made many friends. To some of them he is known as "Deuce." John enjoys music. In school he has added to the gay music of the High School band with his French horn and at home he spends a great deal of time working with his hi-fi equipment. After June '61, John hopes to continue his work at the Wayland Co-op and eventually work his way to the top.

Carter James Fahey

201 Oxbow Rd.
Wayland

One of our class clowns, that's Carter, but he's worth more than just a good laugh, for he is one of our hardest workers. His faithful help on the never-to-be-forgotten concession tent was a welcome aid. Carter enjoys sports, especially basketball and tennis. "F-3", as he is called, likes playing pool, driving a "40" Ford coupe, and eating at Friendly's. Following graduation, Carter plans to attend college and train to be a Radio broadcaster.

Barry G. Fisher

78 Claypit Hill Road
Wayland, Massachusetts

Barry has become the spark which has lightened many an otherwise monotonous day. His sense of humor is shown in a quiet retort or a practical joke which is often aimed at Mr. Burns. His interests have been chiefly outside of school, though this does not mean that he has not worked for our class. Barry hopes to complete his schooling at the University of Maine where he plans to study conservation management. We're behind you, Barry!

Alton L. Flanders, III

3 Amey Road
Cochituate, Massachusetts

"Class come to order" that's what Ace is usually heard saying. He has shown his ability for hard work and active leadership as Junior and Senior Class President. Always ready for a good time, for it isn't all work and no play for Ace. This popular senior plans to study economics and business management. Ace will be successful if he doesn't try to fight City Hall.

Mary Louise Genay

5 Davelin Road
Wayland

Blonde, quiet Mary Lee is very friendly and always willing to lend a hand. She enjoys reading good books and participating in such sports as bowling, boating, and swimming. Mary Lee is serving as this year's Canteen representative from our class. We all thank her for the good job she is doing. She is a great pizza eater and is known for her delicious banana bread. After graduating from college, Mary Lee plans to teach elementary school.

Eldon Goodhue

421 Old Connecticut Path
Cochituate

It certainly wasn't type-casting that won Eldon the villain's role in our class play. This most popular senior is anything but a villain. His tremendous capabilities and warm personality have won him many responsible positions and many, many friends. Eldon will prepare for a career as a pharmaceutical salesman. We're with you, Eldon!

Being with laugh-happy "Wease" is like being in a room filled with feather dusters. She's always laughing, either from humor or embarrassment. Poor Wease! She can never get away with anything. Helpful in many ways, this lively Senior is especially good at serving water to a few select customers at Giovanni's. Wease has nursing in mind as a career. We know she will make the grade.

Dennis Earl Gray

14 Ridgefield Road
Cochituate

Devilish Denny is always ready to pull a practical joke on anyone, anytime, and anyplace. His fun-loving nature has made him well liked by all. Denny has a ready smile that flashes a good deal of the time. His dependability is illustrated by the hard work he put in at the senior concession tent this fall. After graduation, Denny plans to attend Flight School and become a flyer.

Richard David Greene

63 Woodridge Road
Wavland

There are so many things to remember about this popular senior, that it's hard to determine which is most memorable. Is it his class-presidency as a freshman? Co-captainship of the basketball team? His lead in the Senior Play? Or his just plain niceness? We think it's all of these! After graduation, Ricky will go on to college and study public relations writing. All the luck, Ricky!

Clare Gregory

19 Concord Road
Wayland, Mass.

Clare's cheerful, pleasing personality has brightened many a day for the members of our class. She is quick to offer her services for any class activity and is an active participant in school functions. Her outstanding intelligence has been recognized by the many awards she has received, and by her early acceptance at Pembroke College. This energetic girl can frequently be found with a little brown mouse crawling up her sweater, and always with a smile on her face.

Paul M. Gustafson

19 Dean Road
Cochituate

Tall and blonde Gus moved from Waltham to Wayland in 1956. When asked what he enjoys most, he answered emphatically, "Girls!" However, if he is questioned more closely, he adds that he also enjoys cars, rock and roll, watching T.V., and just having a good time. Gus likes all sports, especially baseball, hockey, and bowling. His pet peeves are going to bed and getting up, but he will have to change his ways if he joins the service next year as he plans to do now.

Baseball 1, 2.

George L. Harris

36 Pemberton Road
Cochituate

George is one of those small guys with a lot of brains. He is really smart; however, he hides it under a jovial quick witted nature. His humor is dry, but always raises a welcome chuckle during a dull class. George writes good cynical poetry; unfortunately, only a few people get to read it. George's interests range between bowling, chess, pool and reading. When asked about the future George says he wants to be captain of an atomic submarine.

Lee is a quiet boy who joined our class when we were still in grammar school. Cars are what interest him most. He has a car of his own and works at Shepard's Mobile Gas Station to support it. Every Sunday he can be seen at the local drag races. His greatest hope is to accompany John Hoven to Detroit for the World Championship in car racing. After Detroit they hope to go on to California. Good luck Lee! You're really going to see the country!

Linda Flagg Hillman

28 Bayfield Road
Cochituate

Linda has been a great asset to our class, helping at our Junior Prom, selling tickets at both basketball and football games and being our WBZ High School correspondent. She enjoys meeting people and always has a warm smile for every acquaintance. When Linda's time is not taken up by swimming, tennis and fishing she has a part-time job at Jordan Marsh Co. Her plans for the future include a career in merchandizing or secretarial work.

Barbara Houk

46 Three Pods Road
Wayland

The greatest contribution the Midwest has made to our class is in the form of Barb, our Vice-President. Her friendly smile, sunny disposition, and ambitious drive have won her many friends. Outside of school, this friendly senior is very active in her church P.F. and in the Girl Scouts. After college, Barb would like to travel and work with the underprivileged, either with the government, or in social work. We know she will be an emissary of whom we will all be proud.

John T. Howard

8 Concord Road
Wayland

Whenever there is a need for an expert photographer, John Howard is always called. Several of his photographs have appeared in the "Town Crier" and even more in this Reflector. He also has an active interest in our school sports, and has been manager of our baseball, basketball and football teams. After attending college, he hopes to find a job offering him a chance to travel and an opportunity to make photography his career. John and his camera have been distinctive members of our class.

Priscilla Holdsworth

79 Main Street
Cochituate

At our class reunion we will probably meet blue eyed, blonde Pro, and learn she is a traveling bookkeeper. That's what her future plans call for, and she usually accomplishes her goals. Presently her activities include bowling, horseback riding, softball, and an avid love for reading. Pro moved from Framingham in her Sophomore year where she played softball. However, moving didn't keep her from playing because she has been a member of our team for three years now. The future looks bright for Pro as a bookkeeper and she is sure to be a success.

John Sebastian Hoven, Jr.

377 East Commonwealth Road
Cochituate

John's main ambition is to own a garage when finances permit him to do so. Working at a part-time job in a garage now, he is very interested in cars and drag-racing. John is always in a gay mood, and is readily able to make a joke. After gaining more experience he hopes to be able to build a car that will break the land speed record. He can usually be found operating movie projectors around school.

Projector's Club 1, 2, 3.

Bruce Humphrey

30 Dudley Rd.
Cochituate

Blonde haired, blue eyed, Bruce has been a member of our class since our Junior year, when he transferred to Wayland from Newton Trade School. He can always be counted on for a witty remark, and a good laugh. Having worked in a gas station he has quite a knack for fixing autos. Bruce can usually be found fixing his own car; it seems there's always room for improvement as far as he is concerned.

Seniors

Janice Ann LaPierre

92 Old Sudbury Road
Wayland

Janice has many quiet ways, but to those who really know her, she is a lot of fun. She is active in many out of school sports and was on the girl's basketball team in her Sophomore year. In her Junior year, Janice worked diligently on the "Chatterbox" typing staff and helped decorate for our Prom. She also is a member of St. Ann's CYO. Janice plans to attend Katherine Gibb's Secretarial School and become a legal secretary.

Basketball 2; Chatterbox 3; Prom Committee 3.

Lynda Frances Lawrence

20 Harrison Street
Cochituate

Attractive, dark-haired Lynda is one of the quietest girls in our class. She is, however, a friendly and sincere girl. Her quiet charm and ability to make good friends and keep them, are among her most appreciated traits. We are very confident that Lynda will be happy and successful in the future. After graduation, she plans on marriage and a quiet, happy life.

Business Service 4; Chatterbox 3; Guidance Service 4; Softball 2, 3, 4.

Thomas F. Linnehan

10 Millbrook Rd.
Wayland

Tall, dark, good-looking Tommy, to many of us, seemed to be a rather shy reserved person with much charm and original ideas. However, we have witnessed a great change in him in the last year: from the quiet and illusive to the shining extrovert. Everyone likes Tommy and always has a kind word for him. We are very sure Tommy will be successful in the future. He hopes to further his education in college and go into Business Administration.

Tall, quiet John is often seen riding about town on his blue and white motor scooter. An active member of his church group and of his class, John is liked by all. Fifteen years from now we might see his name in the political news of the state, for John would like to either major in political science in college or become an electronic technician.

Mixed Chorus 4.

Sandra Paula Lubin

24 Maguire Road
Cochituate

Dark, petite Sandi is one of the friendliest girls in our class. Although she moved here only last year from Brooklyn, New York, her vivid lively personality has made her very well-liked. Sandi has an avid interest in folk music and she is often heard humming it or seen dancing to it. Ambitious Sandi would like to attend college and then perhaps enter the teaching profession. Besides possessing all these talents, she is also an excellent student, quick to debate and shows a vast storage of knowledge.

When you first meet Roy, you are immediately overwhelmed by his height. Roy stands 6'4" and is the tallest member of our class. He has been active in mixed chorus through high school and a loyal worker on the senior concession. Roy enjoys himself riding in his "55" Ford, dating getting into trouble and oil painting. After graduation he plans to serve his term in the navy and study commercial art.

Chorus 2, 3, 4; College Club 3.

Gail McCusker

18 Pine Needle Road
Cochituate

Gail came to us this year from Baltimore, Maryland bringing along one of the cutest accents we've ever heard. This tall girl has quickly become one of our best liked classmates. Gail's mother says that she's a procrastinator, but we know better. When Gail's not working at her part-time job or studying her homework, she's out with the gang having a ball. A good student, she plans to study dietetics and nutrition. Some day, Gail might be working out the menus for the Wayland School System.

Basketball 4; Field Hockey 4; French Club 4; Mixed Chorus 4.

Jean Marie McNeil

Mathews Drive

"Personality Pete" has a wonderful sense of humor and good looks to go along with it. He is what one might consider car-crazy, and an expert on "dropping transmissions." His only trouble is picking them up. This year Pete was one of the co-captains on our football team, and thereby helped to spur on the team to victory. Pete keeps his plans for the future completely in the dark.

Football 3, 4 (Co-captain).

Michael A. Potter

3 Timber Lane
Cochituate

A very active class worker, leader, and future business man—that's Mike. He takes part in class meetings giving his opinion on matters; and when he is in charge of a project you can be sure it will be done. Mike's likes include all kinds of music, sports and having a good time. After high school his plans include business school, eventual ownership of his own business, making money and having a good time in his own way.

Barbara Ellen Poley

14 Happy Hollow Road
Wayland

Barbara is one of the quieter members of our class. She is known for her dependability and diligence. Barb is a sweet and loyal friend. She is a girl who knows what she wants. Her main ambition is to become a nurse at a nearby hospital. Because Barb is so willing to help others, we are sure that she will be successful and happy in the years to come.

College Club 1, 2, 3, 4; French Club 4; Girls' Chorus 1; Prom Committee 3; Reflector Staff 4.

David Joseph Porrell

5 Russell Road
Cochituate

If there ever were a contest for an A-1 class member, Dave would win it. Dave not only participates in school sports but has worked on several senior dance committees. And, who will ever forget the day Dave fell off the ladder while decorating for the Junior Prom? Although Dave only stands 5'3" he has been active in football, baseball and is a valuable player on the basketball team. It's easy to see why Dave plans to be a Physical Ed teacher.

Harold G. Purdy

15 Sherman Bridge Road
Wayland

If you ever need a boy with a green thumb, just call on Hal. He has had a job in a greenhouse for quite a few years. In fact, he plans to major in forestry in college. Hal drives a 19?? Ford which also "just happens" to be green. His favorite season is summer time when he can swim, water ski, and ride around in his boat. Hal has a flare for adventure and can often be seen out looking for a good time. Does he find it? Of course he does!

Seniors

Mary Elizabeth Regan

18 Willard Street
Cochituate

Mary is unrivaled for her enthusiastic spirit and her ability to have fun wherever she goes. Her magnetic personality and carefree ways make her the center of any crowd. Should your journey to the land of grass-skirts and pineapples in two years time, you may be aloha'd by a dark, vivacious hula girl with the unlikely name of Reganelli.

Edward Rigney

12 Davelin Road
Wayland

Ed will probably be remembered by our class as the financial genius of Wall Street! Who will ever forget the many times he gave us hot tips about the stock market? An avid hockey fan during the winter, he usually can be found at the Mill Pond or down Dudley Pond practicing. His is a raving nature and he hopes to roam the seven seas in his own ship. Someday we may hear of Captain Rigney likened to Captain Kidd.

College Club 1, 2, 3; Fire Squad 1, 2, 3; Football 1, 2, 4; Projectors 1; Prom Committee 3.

Dianne E. Rizzo

17 Edgewood Road
Cochituate

Dianne, an avid fan of Paul Anka, is a collector of many of his records and would probably be an honorary member of his fan club. Among other things, she enjoys both roller and ice skating. Dianne has been a member of the Wayland High School girls softball team. She also has been an active member in St. Zephryn's CYO for many years. Dianne plans to join the WAVES and "see the world," upon graduating from Wayland.

Softball 2.

Natalie Frances Richardson

81 Woodridge Road
Wayland

Tiny Penny is one of our best-dressed and most coquettish seniors. She is always on hand to participate in class affairs, especially when there is mischief about. Penny plans to major in elementary education at college, and although she is highspirited and has the devil in her eye, we envision her as one of our more strict disciplinarians.

Maria Teresa Rizzo

14 Black Oak Road
Wayland

Pretty dark-haired Maria came to Wayland in her junior year. Worcester's loss was our gain. Maria is a good organizer and can always be counted on to get something done. A rapid speaker and walker, she is well known for her bubbling personality, friendly smile, and many pairs of shoes. Maria's high scholastic achievement has won her membership in the National Honor Society. Though she excels in all her subjects, Maria favors math, and plans to teach it after college.

Richard Raymond Rodier

165 Glezen Lane
Wayland

This friendly senior enjoys his candle pin bowling, ice skating on the Mill Pond, and taking walks in the New England states—but not particularly Massachusetts. In July, after graduation, Rich will join the Armed Service for two years. After which he would like to work at the Poloroid Company, or a similar one, that has extensive opportunities in electronic or mechanical fields. Here's to your success and happiness in the future, Rich!

Science Fair 1, 2, 3.

James Robert Schmidt

10 Loblolly Lane
Wayland

One of our hard working football players, Jim came to Wayland last year as a Junior from North High School in Worcester. Before attending school here, he was active in football for three years and track for two years. He has been carrying on his football activity in Wayland this year. After graduating from Wayland High he looks forward to attending an Air Force school and eventually becoming a pilot for a commercial airline.

Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3.

Nancy Burns Roerig

4 Blossom Lane
Wayland

During the past four years, students around Wayland High have witnessed a great change in Nancy. From a shy, quiet freshman, she has become the cheerful and outgoing senior that we know today. Upon graduating from college, Nancy would like to go into work dealing with people. As people and Nancy are a good combination we know that she will be happy and successful in her work. This work will not continue forever, however, because Nancy plans eventually to marry and, hopes to become the perfect mother.

Seniors

Betty L. Scott

73 Woodridge Road
Wayland

Brunette Betty has brightened our senior year by entering our class as a transfer student from Natick. Her mischievous and flirtatious personality has made her popularity a sure thing. When not in school, Betty is usually working, singing, or skating. After graduation from Wayland, Betty will enter a business college for a two-year course. Her ultimate ambition is to be an airline hostess. Here's to your success, Betty!

Edward Joseph Shaklik, Jr.

11 Old Farm Road
Wayland

Ed seems to enjoy various out-of-doors activities. In the fall he likes to hunt and when winter comes you can always find him playing hockey at the favorite skating spot. After graduating he plans to either attend a college or enter into some branch of the armed forces.

College Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Football; Projector's Club 1; Rifle Team 2.

Judith Silin

31 Rolling Lans
Wayland

Judie is polite, pretty, and peppy. She came to us in her Junior year and has been a dependable asset to our class. She has participated in girl's field hockey and has shown herself to be an exceptional player. Judie plans to further her education at a junior college to become a secretary.

Basketball 4; College Club 3; Field Hockey 4; Prom Committee 3.

Charles H. Simpson

20 Lake Road
Cochituate

Charlie is one of our friendliest and most fun-loving students. He is also a natural prankster. Soup, as he is known, is interested in most sports, especially golf, for he can often be found at the Wayland Country Club. Most of his time is spent working at Jordan Marsh, driving his scooter around town, or taking part in the activities of his MYF. Charlie also enjoys playing cards, stopping at Friendly's, or just being lazy. Next fall he plans to enter a three-year business school.

Baseball 1, 2; Golf 3.

Nancy F. Siok

Lake Shore Drive
Cochituate

Pretty blonde-haired, blue-eyed Nancy is one of the quieter members of the senior class. She really enjoys drawing and is an active member of the Art Service Club. Her plans for the future are undecided at the moment but you can be sure that they will have something to do with the field of art. Nancy's charming ways and courteousness to everyone will be remembered by us all.

Robert Nicholas Sisak

29 Moore Road
Wayland

Arlington, Virginia made a great sacrifice in the year 1958 in the form of Bob Sisak. We at Wayland didn't shed any tears over Arlington's loss, but instead were cheered by our gain. Bob's face with his broad smile can be seen anywhere, including the football games, playing the bass drum with the band, and having a game of softball with the neighborhood gang. After high school, Bob will go on to college for a pre-med course.

Jane P. Smith

4 Beech Road
Cochituate

Smitty, although rather quiet, is one of the best liked girls in our class. You hear so much about "sweet girls" but this one really is. No one ever hears Smitty say an unkind word of anyone. A hard worker, she hopes to be a nurse. If you ever need one, cross your fingers and hope for Smitty.

Keith R. Smith

12 Valley View Road
Cochituate

Poor Skip! Although he has high capabilities in football, he suffered one of our first injuries of the season and was obliged to sit out the rest of the games with a broken ankle. Skip has been one of our quieter classmates, but he is nevertheless a witty, fun-loving person. His future plans are undecided, but we know he will be a success in whatever he endeavors.

Raymond Francis Smith, Jr.

18 Dudley Road
Cochituate

If you see a "hot" red Mercury go down the street you can bet it's Slug, on his way to Natick. Slug is known for initiating excitement in the class room with his witty remarks. Slug's ambition is simply to own a Corvette and be successful. How does he plan to do it? He wants to attend a technical school and become a draftsman.

Baseball 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 4.

Linda Spencer

North Main Street
Cochituate

Vivacious is the only word for Linda, or Spence, as she is called by her friends. She has a hidden reserve of pep, that she can draw on continuously without ever running out. Her popularity, though, is based on her willingness and capability for work, as well as her love of fun. Spence hopes to study at Fisher College towards the goal of being an electronics secretary. Here's to your success, Spence!

Edith Marie Tarbell

209 Boston Post Road
Wayland

Edie is a friendly and energetic person. She is rather quiet during school, but outside of class she can always be seen participating in an activity or talking to someone. As for future plans after graduation, Edie has plenty of them. She hopes to further her education by attending a junior college and would like to either be a dental hygienist or enter the field of retailing.

A future chief justice or probable architect—that's Bob! A steady member of the class, this senior is also a very active President of his C.Y.O. Bob enjoys skiing, swimming, tennis and being active in any way. Perhaps he is a combination of Fred Waring and Chief Justice Marshall, because, besides his many other activities, he is the conductor of the Mixed Chorus.

Pauline G. Weiss

45 Moore Road
Wayland

Pauline seems quiet, but when you get to know her well, she is lively and interesting. Quite skillful in both photography and art, she hopes to have a career in fashion merchandising. To help her on the way, she was awarded the De Cordova Art Scholarship in her Junior year. When Pauline isn't home painting, or perhaps developing a picture, you can be sure she's spending the weekend in Dorchester, having a ball.

Richard Lane Whipple

62 Ponds Road
Wayland

Rich joined our class from Lexington this year. Though he is quiet in school, to those who know him he is a good and interesting friend. His interests are numerous, including sports, cars and music. During his spare time you would probably find him tinkering on his car or perhaps listening to his favorite records. His plans for the future include a college education at perhaps Wentworth Institute where he will study some type of industrial work.

Robert A. Whitehead

11 Simpson Road
Cochituate

Whitey is truly one of the hardest workers for our Senior class. Thanks to him, our yearbook ads swelled, our concession tent had a willing worker, and our fruit cakes were sold. It's really wonderful to know that there is someone like Whitey to depend on. When not in school or working on his part time job, Whitey's busy with his tropical fish. This earnest senior plans to attend a business college and hopes to be a success in the business world. We know Whitey will.

George Roger Witzell

36 Mitchell Street
Cochituate

Blue-eyed and always rosey cheeked—that's George! George is often seen going toward Natick, and it isn't only because he works at the Stop and Shop! A somewhat quiet and reserved member of our class, George enjoys dancing and candle pin bowling. George's future plans? Well, he plans to attend a junior college where he will study electronics. However, we won't be surprised if he runs a taxi service to Natick!

Alice Elizabeth Wilson

7 Caestle Road
Cochituate

Nantucket Island is where Alice, nicknamed "Bunny," lived before coming to Wayland in her sophomore year. Bunny has always been very friendly towards all, creating an atmosphere of warmth. An ardent Wayland sports fan, she seldom misses a game, especially football. This lively teenager's future plans are to attend a business school and take a business course. However, she isn't only a spectator of the boys' sports, for she has played on the girls basketball team during her junior and senior years.

"Gold in the Hills," the heartbreaking story of an unscrupulous villain who, while trying to win our sweet heroine's heart, resorted to wresting her father's homestead from his hands for his own evil purposes, was produced this year as our Senior Class Play.

Leading roles were capably played by Phyllis Weaver, Barry Parker, Ricky Greene, and Eldon Goodhue. Masterful in the supporting roles were Roy Flanders, Elizabeth Woodsum, Valerie Costa, Clare Gregory and Linda Spencer. Though the parts were minor, Billy Clarke, Gayle Zagoren, Anne Pearson, Penny Richardson, Mike Potter, Dave Porrell and Herbie Brannen rounded out the cast and helped make the play a success. An unforgettable feature was the talent displayed by several members of the class in their singing and entre acts.

Mr. Reek K. Taylor, assisted by Linda Zable and Jane Turner, directed the play. Lighting was handled by John Howard. Piano was expertly played by Randy Johnson.

Underclassmen

The teaching staff, is organized into teams according to subject. The subject's leading teacher is placed in charge of the team and in charge also of organizing and coordinating all of the material and all of the teaching in each subject.

In each Center there is a staff room. These staff rooms eliminate the use of a class room for teacher desk space. There is a clerk assigned to the staff room whose principle duties are typing and attendance.

There are two large group rooms on the campus; one in the Language Center (seating 150 pupils) and one in the Math-Science Center (seating 125 pupils). A student is scheduled to meet in this type room once a week in each subject. The type of teaching done in this area is lecture work. These rooms are equipped with an Overhead, Opaque and movie projectors.

In the Language Center (pictured left) there is a Language Laboratory. The Laboratory is used in the teaching of English, French, Spanish, Latin and Stenography dictation.

Activities

The Art Center staff is organized into seven teams. The coordinator of the building works with both the Art Center and the Academic teams.

The philosophy of the Art Center (pictured left) is to allow the students of the school to choose an area in which they would like to do project work. This work may be aligned with academic studies, or may be solely in one of the Art Center areas. The projects offered are Music, Art, Ceramics, Jewelry Craft, Home Arts, Drama, Wood and Metal Laboratories. The student may work in one or several of these areas during the year.

The Student Council was formed to have a closer union between the student body and the members of the faculty. The students work through their council members, since it is a democratic governing committee. It looks into any problems which arise and attempts to solve them readily.

It has accomplished many worthwhile things in the past, but this year, perhaps because of the new high school plant, the student council has achieved even more. At one of their first meetings, officers were elected as follows: Lee Paton, President; Sue Mohl, Vice-President; June Kerr, Secretary; Eldon Goodhue, Treasurer.

For all the things that the Student Council has achieved, we honor and respect it.

The National Honor Society is an organization whose membership is based upon Character, Scholarship, Service, and Leadership. Members are chosen from the eligible applicants during their Junior and Senior years by the faculty.

This year, the Honor Society, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ann B. Shields, consists of thirteen members, admitted in their Junior year. They are: James Bradford, President, Sandra Lubin, Vice President, Barbara Houk, Secretary, Maria Rizzo, Treasurer, David Cleveland, Peggy Dobbie, Clare Gregory, Emerson Henderson, John Howard, Judy Moss, Anne Pearson, Mary Regan, and Linda Spencer.

The 1961 REFLECTOR is a book of memories. Each page, each picture, each piece of copy, was designed and put into place to remind you of your 1960-1961 school year. Under the expert guidance of Robert J. Fraser, the staff has tried to record the memorable moments of your school life. Your Senior year, your Junior Prom, all your activities, and all your in-school fun, are mirrored in this yearbook. The 1961 REFLECTOR is for you, because it reflects your days at Wayland High School.

The aim of the Library Service Club is for each member to gain a better understanding of the world of books. Each member devotes a specified amount of time every week helping in the library. Through this experience they learn the involved process which a book goes through from store to library shelf: ordering, receiving, cataloging, accessioning, covering, and shelving. We are very fortunate this year to have a beautiful library in our new school, one with sufficient shelves for books. The atmosphere created by our library has added a lot of enthusiasm to the student body and the club has gained greatly in membership.

That'll be a $25 fine.

The members of the Guidance Service Club devote one or more periods each week to help our guidance councilors, Miss Glynn, Mr. Oxford, and their secretary, Mrs. Frederickson. Their duties range from keeping the beautiful guidance room neat and the catalogues orderly displayed on the tables and bookshelves to answering the telephone, filing data on future vocations, and running errands.

and in Business.

Along with the new scheduling of classes, Typing I is offered to students during period 8 (after school). Instruction is received through large group classes with each student assigned a portable typewriter. It is the duty of the members of the Business Service Club to aid the instructor by checking typewriters and to see that everything runs smoothly. Most of the members are seniors and all have had at least two years of typing.

They Write . . .

Wait 'till the Seniors read this.

The Chatterbox is a school paper published monthly in the Wayland-Weston town newspaper, the "Town Crier." This is a wonderful opportunity for all students to learn the different techniques of journalism. The purpose of this organization is not for material gain, but rather to improve our creative skill in writing and to express our opinions. The students not only publish the school news for the townspeople to read, but they are also trying to bring about the understanding of high school youth through the expression of their thoughts and ideas. The Senior class publishes an on-campus edition which included not only the news published in the "Town Crier," but also personal school news.

The Audio-Visual Service Club is a student organization composed of approximately 30 boys recommended by teachers to the club's advisor Mr. McVey. The organization has become a vital part of the school's program in that it is called upon to perform many varied tasks, ie., moving A-V equipment to and from instructional areas, assisting the teachers in the operation of this equipment, scheduling film showings, supervising the Materials Center and assisting the teachers in the production of instructional materials. In complete charge of the organization are: Emerson Henderson, Chief; David Newton, Assistant Chief; John Howard, Property Manager. Also on the staff are freshmen Guy Werner and Bruce Keary. Working with these boys are approximately 15 assistants who supervise the Center during the week, and a number of projector operators.

The Art Service Club is made up of students possessing talent and the desire to serve Wayland High in the way they know best. The major goal that the club sets for themselves is the donating of art scholarships to deserving seniors. The means to this end are making tiles, jewelry, and other such articles to sell. In addition to fund-raising activities, the Art Service Club aids the school and the community by creating posters for display and publicity purposes.

The Bi-Phi-Chem Club is comprised of students who have maintained at least an overall B average, and who show a keen interest in science and the advancement of science. Bi-weekly meetings consist of scientific demonstrations, film programs and illustrated lectures. In addition to individual and group projects, the club's most ambitious project is the sponsoring and organizing of the annual Science Fair. In the past, several scholarships have been presented to deserving seniors who have made significant contributions in the science field.

The question Parlez-vous francais? is very emphatically answered Oui by the members of the French Club. The club meets the first and third Friday of each month, at which time they listen to French tapes and discuss their future plans. The ultimate aim this year, is to sponsor a French exchange student. The money needed for this project is raised through cake sales and other fund-raising activities. The officers are President Patty Osmond, Vice President Danny Disenso, Secretary Marcia Howard, Treasurer Linwood Galeucia, and Publicity Elizabeth Woodsum.

The Mixed Chorus has always been one of the "old stand-by" organizations of Wayland High School. This year under the direction of Miss Clemmence the Mixed Chorus has done some new and different things. They went Christmas caroling in December, and held a Music Festival in the Spring.

At one of the first meetings, officers were elected as follows: Robert Travers, Student Conductor; Nancy Adams, Librarian; Janice Fredickson, Librarian; Catherine Babers, Accompanist; Peter Neuendorffer, Accompanist; Robert Billig, Accompanist.

The band began activities for the year by playing and marching at home football games, plus the Weston game at Weston, Thanksgiving Day. The Band also participated in the Christmas assembly, and in January participated in the dedication ceremonies of our beautiful new school. Later in January the band played at the American Legion Oratorical Contest. At this writing, plans call for performing at noon assemblies, presenting our annual concert as a part of the Arts Festival, participate in the Northeast District Audition Festival, and participating in the town's observance of Memorial Day.

New music facilities in the Arts Center, the Band Room and Practice Rooms, have made it possible to offer many new activities this year, and what's more they have at last a place to call their own!

Sports

Students come to the Physical Education Center (pictured left) twice a week for their physical education experiences. Each student is given an opportunity to participate in a wide variety of individual, intramural and recreational activities. The opportunity is provided for by their participation in the intramural program as a member of a team on a competitive basis; as an individual, performing on a competitive basis with another individual; or as a participant in a free or general play activity.

This year students are given the opportunity to engage in a broader interscholastic program that will include the addition of two new areas—Track, (Cross-country, Indoor, and Outdoor); Tennis, (Boys and Girls). These will supplement the standard program of Football, Field Hockey, Basketball, Baseball and Softball.

We'll never forget . . .

Mr. Anthony F. Bova

This year, for the first time, we are dedicating the sports pages of our yearbook. We dedicate these pages to a man who was devoted to youth, Mr. Anthony F. Bova. A stellar football player of his time, he was an active part of Wayland High athletics for many years, encouraging and lauding the feats of our athletes. A familiar sight in the stands in autumn, winter, and spring, we know he will never be forgotten.

Our Football Team . . .

This year the Wayland High football team proved beyond a doubt that they had a winning spirit. Despite a slow start, the Wayland Warriors pushed all the way and finished with a winning season with only one Dual County League loss, namely the Lynnfield game.

The big upset came at the annual Wayland-Weston Thanksgiving game where the Wayland Warriors downed the Wildcats 20-14. Both teams were pretty evenly matched throughout the game till the fourth quarter when an interception brought home the win for Wayland.

Outstanding offensively through the season were Ken Houghton, George Dreher and Dwight Perodeau. Defensively, Lee Paton, Bucky Duane and Bob Ferranti played very well. Although the team did not win any championships this year, nevertheless, they were champions in the hearts of all their fans.

The teams played well and hard, ending our season with a two-four record.

Under Competition . . .

Fellows, I told you to stop eating Wheaties.

February 14, 1961, the Wayland High Basketball team, under the fine coaching of "Buzz" Bowers, ended the regular season with an over all record of 12 wins and only 4 losses. The dual county saw but two defeats with a dozen victories enabling the team to wind up in first place. The team itself, directed by the two co-captains Ricky Greene and Eldon Goodhue, consisted of mostly seniors. Junior Billy Wilkinson, a red-hot jumper, could not complete the season due to a broken hand, however, Dave Porrell did a fine job in filling his spot. Barry Parker, the forward, played well using his deadly one handed set up shot and played a good defensive game. Lee Paton or "Beefy" as he is known to his teammates, did a good job rebounding and hooking. Eldon Goodhue was an excellent man on the boards, a great shooter, tapper and defensive strategist, but, most fans will remember this all versatile player for his game winning bucket in the crucial Wayland-Weston game. Ricky Greene, was the set up man and used his dribbling ability to break the presses used by opposing teams. The team had good bench power with Dwight Perodeau, Carter Fahey, Tom Linnehan, Jim Bradford and Alan Arndd.

The season wasn't decided until the very last game. The lead was at one point, held by five different teams. The turning point of the season was the Wayland-Weston game which was decided in the last three seconds. There were many close games throughout the season. Lexington ran into overtime and a sudden death. Weston, the first game in the new gym, went into an overtime also and Lincoln-Sudbury was defeated by only one basket.

Upon winning the game against Weston, Wayland qualified for the Tech Tournament competition. In the quarter finals, the Warriors played their most impressive game with an overwhelming victory over Sacred Heart of Cambridge. Eldon Goodhue and Lee Paton combined for 45 points. However, the Tech Tournament was terminated for the Warriors as they suffered a 68-48 loss to Bridgewater before a well packed and spirited audience. The team had an impressive season, one that made everyone proud of the Wayland Warriors.

Our Girls' Basketball team, under the coaching of Miss J. Mula, has ended up the 1960-61 season with a fine record. The Varsity was led to a 4-3 winning season by Co-captains Peggy Dobbie and Jane Smith. The Junior Varsity also had a 4-3 season led by Co-captains Janet Pearson and Paula Martineau. Gail Hennigar finished with a total of 88 points scored for the Varsity while Elaine Gustafson and Barbara Lowell were high scorers for the Junior Varsity.

The Wayland High Rifle Team began its third season of existence on January 7, 1961 with a match with Waltham. The team's co-captains were Emerson Henderson and David Newton while their coach was Gerald McVey. At each match ten shooters performed; shooting ten prone position shots (lying down) and ten offhand position shots (standing position). Individual ratings are totalled, then combined for a total score. Although they completed their season with 1 win and 7 losses, they had a lot of spirit and sportsmanship and we are all proud they represent our school on the range.

Students taking chemistry, physics, or biology have classes scheduled to include respective laboratory experiences.

In the Math-Science Center (pictured left) apparatus such as an astronomical observatory, photographic dark room, biological greenhouse, radio transmitter and receiver, electronic computer and an interferometer are available for individual student use.

The mathematics department has been reorganized so that the courses offered are listed by grade and degree of advancement. This offers the opportunity for accelerated teaching in such fields as solid geometry, calculus, probability and statistics, besides having the more conventional subjects as algebra, geometry and general math.

Throughout the students' day, individuality is emphatically stressed in each center. This modern concept of secondary school education was devised to further prepare the individual for his adult responsibilities in the years to come.

this is 1/8 of a page of nothing. we have no message about invisible protective shields, whispering bread, or machines that take Bufferin.

there are no creative ideas here; we don't want you to buy anything, sell anything, or accept anything. we were the BIG FIVE . . . the Big Four . . . the big three . . . now we're just a gruesome twosome. we don't have checkered shirts, or theme songs, or a fan club. our mailbox receives letters written by us to us.

first we thought . . . HALITOSIS . . . ? we bought listerine. then we considered . . . schitzosomiosis and slenderella. not only do we have nothing to say . . . we have no one to whom to say it.

* Dual County League Games
  League Playoffs

Batter up! that was the call as spring came to Wayland High School, accompanied by a bat, ball, and tall, lanky coach, Charles (Buzz) Bowers. The season was a fruitful one with Wayland High ending in the semi-finals, playing against St. Mary's of Milford and Lynnfield High.

Class Poem

Four years ago as freshmen we had learned
The ways of high school life, but we discerned
The struggle up had only just begun
Were we to graduate in sixty-one.

Since then we've grown in brain, we hope, and brawn.
From teachers, books, and colleagues we have drawn
Opinions, facts and fancies that we know
Will have their use wherever we may go.

Our senior year we had a privilege rare—
A brand new school entrusted to our care.
The buildings and techniques were all quite new
And people flocked to witness our debut.

Our school has given us a lasting base
On which to build. The future is ours to face.
To Wayland High School and the life we've known,
It's time to say goodbye; we're on our own.
